Please join us for the third Town of Lexington Open Studios. Lexington-affiliated artists & artisans will open their studios to the public. For those lacking a studio in town, we may be able to find space in another studio or in our first-come, first-served Community Space. (NOTE: Community Space will have an additional cost.)

I Agree to the Following:

- I live, work, teach, or create art in Lexington, or am affiliated with a Lexington arts organization.
 - I enclose a non-refundable fee of $35, made out to Munroe Center for the Arts, for which I will be listed individually on the map and guide that will be distributed throughout town and also to all Lexington Minuteman subscribers. Arts-related organizations may apply for a single listing at the same rate.
 - As a Lexington Open Studios artist, I am responsible for insurance coverage for property, artwork, visitor injury, liability, etc. I shall indemnify and hold harmless the Munroe Center for the Arts and the owner of any host site for any and all claims of injury or other damage caused to my artwork or the premises.
 - I will supply all needed fixtures for displaying my work.
 - I will be present in my studio space or in the Community Space for the Open Studios period (except as described in writing along with this application); or organize a studio sitter.
 - I will help make LOS a success by alerting other Lexington-affiliated artists, forwarding promotional emails, putting up signs, placing brochures, and volunteering to help with jobs listed on reverse (or p. 2).
 - IMPORTANT: Registration requires submission of a digital image (300 dpi or better) of my art for publication purposes.
 - Digital image supplied at time of registration to OpenStudios@munroecenter.org
